

October/November/December 2011

Dear ones,

This issue will be late going into the mail, for the simple reason that we don't yet have sufficient funds. It costs $2,000 to publish and mail one issue. We have enough to have it printed, folded, and prepared for mailing; but it may wait for some time before we can pay the postage ($1,000). "This is not a request for money" I just want you to know that we didn't forget you. The Lord may be telling us that it is time to close it down.

"33 DEGREES OF DECEPTION" IS ALREADY BEARING FRUIT!!!

The new book on Freemasonry is already bearing good fruit! We are hearing of men who have been set free and have come to the Lord because of it! Its 443 pages include the entire content of my first two books, Deadly Deception and Please Tell Me, plus much, much more. Changes to Masonry in recent times have shaken it to its very roots; things that I would never have believed could happen are happening! This book is all you will need for reference and for witnessing to Masons. It is exhaustively authenticated, with sources at the end of every chapter. And every source cited in the book is a Masonic source?their most revered authorities. There is not a single Christian or "anti-Masonic" publication referenced. Most Masons don?t know the truth because they don?t read their own stuff. But I do.

The book is so well received that the publisher, Bridge-Logos, is increasing the price. As long as my supply lasts, my price will still be $15.00 plus 4.00 packing and mailing, for a total of $19.00. When I have to buy more from the publisher at the new price, it will be $17.00 plus 4.00, for a total of $21.00.

D.L. MOODY ON FREEMASONRY

Dwight L. Moody, the great evangelist and founder of Moody Bible Institute, summarized his position concerning Masonry and the Church: "Give them the truth anyway, and if they would rather leave their churches than their lodges, the sooner they get out of their churches the better. I would rather have ten members who are separated from the world than a thousand such members! Come out of the lodge!"

AARP HITS A NEW LOW!

In the last issue I reported some of the ugly truth about the enormously wealthy deceiver and betrayer of the elderly, AARP; but now they have surpassed themselves in supporting issues repugnant to most of their members. They have now "come out of the closet" with their active support of the homosexual agenda; if you are a member, they are using your money to advance the cause of homosexuality! In the July/August issue of their bulletin, page 38, they proudly announced: AARP has created a new online home for the older lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender community! The page links to news stories on such hot topics as same-sex marriage, gay adoption?. Check it out at aarp.org/pride.

AND THEN THERE IS THE NAACP

Another organization gone sour is the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, founded in 1909. Originally established for the purpose implied in the name, it has become a blatantly racist, far-left organization which attacks honorable (but not revolutionary) blacks, such as Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas and former Secretary of State, Condoleezza Rice, while defending such radical racists as America-hating Jeremiah Wright, Obama's spiritual father, and vicious criminals such as death-row cop killer Mumia Abu-Jamal (formerly Wesley Cook). It seems inescapable that the NAACP has become not only anti-white, but anti-American. Case in point: they find George Washington unbearably offensive. The South Carolina chapter held a rally at the state capitol to celebrate Martin Luther King. In preparing the site for the rally, they built a screen, draped in black, completely screening the bronze statue of George Washington from view. Why? Because it was "offensive." THE PROPHETIC WORDS OF A VERY GREAT BLACK MAN

"There is a class of colored people who make a business of keeping the troubles and wrongs and hardships of the Negro before the public. Some of these people don't want the Negro to lose his grievances, because they do not want to lose their jobs." (Booker T. Washington, 1911)

THE CRUEL FACE OF ISLAM

At the age of 12, Bibi Aisha, a little Afghan girl, was forced to marry an older man. Beginning on her wedding day, her husband, a Taliban terrorist, beat her regularly. After receiving a beating so brutal that she thought she might die, she made her way to a neighbor for medical attention. To punish her for ?leaving home without permission" he took her to a remote spot in the mountains. There, while she screamed, several men held her while her husband cut off her nose, her ears and her hair. Abandoned by her husband, she was taken in by a women's shelter and came to the US in August 2010. You can see her, mutilated at age 19, her original beauty still visible, in the Dec 2010 "National Geographic" p 39. (National Geographic)

OUR ISLAM-LOVING PRESIDENT

Our Islam-loving president, who declared to the world that we are ?no longer a Christian nation," and ignores even the ecumenical National Day of Prayer, seems to celebrate all things Muslim. After hosting a formal White House dinner to celebrate the beginning of Ramadan (for the 3rd year), he even issued an official statement at the end of Ramadan, one dripping with praise and approval for Islam and for Muslims all over the World, wishing them "Eid-ul-Fitr" greetings, and signing it (I'm not making this up) "Eid Mubarak." GUESS WHO HAS ENDORSED OBAMA FOR RE-ELECTION!

It is still very early in the campaign for the presidency, but one group has already endorsed Barak Obama for re-election: the Communist Party USA. Sam Webb, Chairman of the Communist Party USA, announced that Obama has given "space to struggle for a people's agenda," and urged continued support for the Democrat Party. (WND)

YOUR TAX DOLLARS AT WORK - ON MOSQUES!

In a program that they would prefer that you not know about, our State Department is spending 800 million dollars refurbishing Muslim mosques around the world, and providing computers with internet wire service, in areas where most of the imams (religious leaders) are vehemently anti-American. A VETERANS DEATH BOOK

The Clinton Administration produced a Veterans Administration booklet, "Your Life, Your Choices," to help hospitalized veterans make "end of life decisions" (this translates to "commit suicide" or "let us help by killing you"). The booklet was written by VA Ethicist Robert Pearlman, an advocate for euthanasia, schooled in the George Soros "Project on Death in America," with additional guidance from the Hemlock Society (the "Planned Parenthood" of suicide). The Bush Administration discontinued the pamphlet, only to see it restored by Obama in his first year. An Obama VA directive requires all VA primary care physicians to push "end of life decisions proactively," that is, with all patients, not just the elderly. (WSJ/Cardinal Mindszenty Foundation)

NO GOD, JESUS OR RELIGIOUS WORDS AT VA FUNERALS!

The veterans cemetery at Houston is the scene of an ongoing conflict; because burial parties for veterans are being prevented from praying or using "God, Jesus or religious words" during military burials. Veterans Administration officials have denied their complaints, and strongly support Cemetery Director Arleen Ocasio. But now a Congressman, John Culberson (R-Tex), has gone underground, investigated, and found the charges to be true. Representatives of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and National Memorial Ladies, who have complained about this policy, have been stonewalled. Now they are suing. A Cemetery Chapel, where families once prayed, is now used as a storage facility. (Fox)

THE AIR FORCE KILLS A COURSE WITH SCRIPTURE CONTENT

For 20 years the Air Force has conducted a training course called "Christian Just War Theory." Taught by chaplains at Vandenburg AF Base, its purpose is to demonstrate to missile launch officers that warfare can be moral. An anti-God group, the Military Religious Freedom Foundation, filed a complaint because the course includes passages from the Bible. The Air Force eliminated the course the very next day. (Fox)

METHODIST SEMINARY WILL TRAIN NON-CHRISTIANS

Claremont Seminary, a Methodist seminary in California, has announced plans to launch schools of ministry for Islam, Hinduism and other non-Christian religions. Really "I'm not making this up" who could? One of the objectives, according to the project web site, is to teach "the legitimacy and integrity" of other religions and train leaders to promote them. DOES MADNESS PREVAIL IN WASHINGTON DC?

Going more deeply in debt in order to get out of debt, is like a drowning man, diving more deeply into the ocean, in order to reach air to breathe. (TCM)

SODOMIZING THE NAVY

At times lately I wonder if I am living in Alice's Wonderland--or having a nightmare. The Navy, which violated common sense and thousands of years of naval precedents, assigned women to ships' crews, resulting in an orgiastic explosion of sexual activity aboard ship, is now assigning women to submarine crews. I have spent time aboard submarines, and there is no privacy. Then, in late September, President Obama ended the "don't ask don't tell" policy, allowing open homosexuals to serve in the Armed Forces. The first fruit of Obama's destructive act was borne only 10 days later, and it is disastrous.

Not satisfied with feminizing and sexualizing the Navy, the outgoing Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Admiral Mike Mullen, has made official a policy, proposed last May: he announced that Navy Chaplains will now perform homosexual "marriages" for openly homosexual Navy personnel. As a Marine, once proud to be a part of the Naval Service, this breaks my heart. As one who once served as an enlisted Marine between WW II and the Korean War, and as an infantry and special operations officer in Korea and Vietnam, aboard ship and in the mud, I assure you that there will be bloodshed and there will be death. Our best men (and women) will leave the service. And, if this insanity isn't reversed, it will be the end of our combat arms as effective fighting units. (Fox/WP/etal)

MAN, IN 23-YEAR LONG COMA, COMMUNICATES AT LAST

Rom Houben, a Belgian man, had been comatose, in a persistent vegetative state, for 23 years following a car wreck. Like all such cases, he says that he was acutely aware of everything said and done around him, but was trapped in the nightmare of being unable to let anyone know it. The medical community is slowly becoming aware of this vital fact concerning comatose patients; and I experienced it personally when a patient in Walter Reed Hospital following the Vietnam War. (BP/London Daily Mail)

PRAYING WITHOUT CEASING

We Christians have the unspeakable privilege of speaking directly to the God of the Universe. We are taught by the Bible to ?pray without ceasing? which, I believe, means to be in a prayerful attitude, and in touch with God at all times; an excellent way to do this and still function in this world is to thank Him for things all day (and, perhaps, by the Spirit, all night). Let it become a habit. We are habit-prone creatures, and habit is a powerful force. It can be a destructive force in our lives, so why not turn Satan?s howitzers around, fire them at him, and use this characteristic, which we can?t escape anyway, for good? Thank Him for everything that turns out well (and sometimes for those that don?t). Do you have a healthy urinary system? Thank Him for it every time it functions?when it doesn?t, it is a horrible way to die. While driving did you look up from the radio dial or CD player in time to avoid hitting a bridge abutment or another car? Thank Him. Is there a parking place available so you can make your appointment on time? Thank Him for it. Did the tomato stain come out of your favorite shirt? Thank Him. You get the idea?develop this holy habit deliberately. It doesn?t take long to breathe out, ?Thank you Lord.? He will be pleased, and it will change your life for the better.

DELIBERATE, DAILY PRAYER

In addition to small prayers throughout the day, it is important to have a regular time of day devoted to deliberate Bible reading and prayer. It is even helpful to have a regular place to go for this, alone with God and his Word, and with the outside world shut out. In fact, I will suggest that this is an irreducible minimum for victorious Christian living. You may read entire chapters, or a book each day, and you may pray for an hour or two; or you may read a few verses and pray for 10 minutes. The important thing is to do it and do it regularly. If all you have time for is to recite John 3:16 and pray, "God is great, but I'm late," it is better than nothing. And speaking of having time to pray, I am reminded of Gen. Stonewall Jackson, a great general and a great man of prayer. Some of his subordinates criticized him for taking time to pray before a battle, saying that there wasn?t time to pray. Jackson replied, "We don?t have time not to pray."

Dave Wilkerson says that he has his best time alone with God after midnight; I couldn?t survive that way, for I am an early-to-bed-and-early-to-rise guy. We are all different, so do what is natural. Make it a habit, and you will find yourself wishing to read more, and to have more time in prayer. Abraham did this, King David did this; and, most importantly, Jesus did this. If He needed it, don't we?

MARTY'S CORNER

When discussing the problems of education in America with a teacher recently, I asked if the NEA and AFT (education unions) ever went on strike or made demands about anything but more money and benefits. Did they ever protest directives handed down by the state or federal government for teaching "diversity," history revisionism, global warming and other unproven theories or did they ever demand teaching more academics, better curriculum, and morality. The answer: Silence. Silence because the answer is "no." It is a sad commentary not only on the state of education in America but also on all government entities. The rank 'n file blindly follow union leaders, who wield a heavy hand of fear as they seek more power and money for themselves. Each step into more government is a step into the "government" becoming their god. Something is very wrong and one can feel it throughout the country. It's palpable.

Class warfare is preached daily from the White House, but the Ten Commandments clearly tell us "Thou shalt not covet anything that is your neighbor's." "The hour is late and the stakes are high. The choice is between the deceiver and the LORD" "choose this day whom you will serve." Joshua 24:15

END YOUR DAILY PRAYER WITH PRAISE AND WORSHIP

It is important (and blessed) to end the daily prayer with private praise and worship. Some find it difficult to understand the difference between praise and worship. Mel Torrey, the Indonesian Christian and author of the landmark book "Like a Mighty Wind," put it in these simple words: "Praise is saying nice things about God; worship is saying nice things to God." In teaching, I sometimes use the analogy of the family dog. When you have been gone and return home, he leaps on you in uninhibited joy, runs around in circles, jumps, barks and yips. That is praise. After he calms down, you enter the house and sit down in your favorite chair, and he just lies still at your feet, adoring you with his eyes while his tail quietly swishes. That is worship. It may feel strange to you at first but, like the daily time of Bible reading and prayer, you will find it increasingly natural and blessed to end your time of prayer with praise and worship. And, after all, He is worthy of it.

A POINT TO PONDER

"Obama does not understand us because he is not one of us." (Major General Jerry Curry, US Army Ret, who is, if it matters, black)

A POINT TO PONDER

"I sought for the greatness and genius of America in her commodious harbors and her ample rivers, and it was not there. I sought for it in the fertile fields and boundless prairies, and it was not there. I sought it in her rich mines and vast world commerce and it was not there. Not until I went into the churches of America and heard her pulpits aflame with righteousness did I understand the secret of her genius and power." (Alexis De Toqueville 1835)

ANOTHER POINT TO PONDER

"America is great because America is good. When America ceases to be good, America will cease to be great." (Alexis DeToqueville 1835)
